4 Profitable Meme Coins to Replace Old Solana Coins

The crypto business is transitioning from the previous trend of Solana-based meme currencies to a new category of meme coins.

Although Solana meme money have been around for a while, it's time to move on to other meme currencies.

Several <https://www.btcc.com/en-US/academy/crypto-basics/guide-how-to-trade-bitcoin-futures-on-btcc> al obscure meme coins have made enormous gains recently that are not receiving as much attention.

Every each day, a lot of cryptocurrencies are introduced to the market, but only a small number of them stick out in traders' portfolios and—more importantly—bear returns. Let's talk about the top-earning meme coins in this blog, excluding Solana meme currencies.

4 Profiting Meme Coins to Replace Old Solana Coins

ERC20, Real Smurf Cat, SPX6900, and Apu Apustaja are this week's top-earning non-Solana meme coins, according to CoinmarketCap. A few meme coins have been given the chance to shine in the market for the first time in months out of these. So let's examine that.

1. Real Smurf Cat

The Smurfs are the inspiration for the deflationary humour coin Real Smurf Cat. It has produced two high peaks thus far since its introduction less than a year ago, and a third might happen soon, at the very least. Meme money has surged 78% in a week, and it is now selling at $0.0001289. Following a 10% rise, the market capitalization is $12.09M, with $1,271,210 worth of trading volume.

Its all-time high, set six months ago at $0.0003975, is now 67.63% away. Nevertheless, the token was on the verge of reaching the ATH during its most recent spike at the beginning of March. In light of that, the token may try again to hit the optimal price point.

2. ERC20

With a 17585% increase in value in only one week, ERC20 is clearly the most lucrative meme coin. After a 500% rise, its market capitalization is $62,735,644 and it is presently trading at $0.05559. Launched in 2018, ERC20 primarily attracted attention at that time. It reached a record high of $5.93 during that time, but by 2019 the price had fallen 95% and has remained around that level until now.

3.SPX6900

Meme coins are making a killing, and one of them is SPX6900, a deflationary coin that debuted on the Ethereum platform. This week, its value increased by 65%, reaching $0.007674. This meme coin has only been around for a little over a year in the cryptocurrency market. In that little time, it has risen to a new all-time high of $0.03175, a 75% increase from where it is now. The coin reached a peak of $0.01127 in March and early April, indicating strong momentum. The price can go higher if a new bullish trend starts.

4.Apu Apustaja

This week, the value of Apu Apustaja, another meme coin centred on frogs, increased by 53% since its inception at the tail end of March. This meme currency is known by several names, including Peepo and Helper. It is sometimes compared to PEPE's younger and more innocent sibling. Midway through April, Apu aimed for an all-time high of $0.0007924, which is barely 20% away. The token might be pushed closer to the ATH by the continuing current surge.

Conclusion

Everyone else has gotten the attention they deserved as investors concentrated on the meme currencies based on Solana. Coins based on platforms other than Solana have also done well this week. The hopes for the next weeks are much higher because this week has been better than the entire last month.
