What is Binance Megadrop?

Binance Megadrop is a token-launch platform built on the foundation of Binance Launchpool, which allows users to directly participate in the launch of new tokens. This platform takes it a step further by introducing airdrops and Web3 quests as methods for earning rewards from upcoming Web3 projects before their tokens are officially listed on Binance.

Binance Megadrop aims to provide users with an interactive and rewarding experience within the crypto ecosystem. Further details related to Megadrop numbers, Web3 missions, and detailed launch plans will be announced at a later date.

How Does Binance Megadrop Work?

For users to participate in Binance Megadrop, there are two ways: by subscribing to BNB Locked Products on Binance Simple Earn or completing tasks within their Web3 Wallet. By locking their BNB, users can earn rewards from upcoming Web3 projects based on their total score relative to the total scores of all qualified users. The more BNB a user locks, the higher their chances of receiving a larger reward from the Megadrop.

In addition, users can also complete tasks within their Web3 Wallet, which is a feature available on the Binance platform. These tasks are designed by new Web3 projects and offer rewards in return for completing them. By using the Binance Web3 Wallet, users can easily track their progress and earn exclusive token airdrops.
