Global Macro Developments

1. Powell Rejects Possibility of July Rate Cut

On June 24 (local time), Iran and Israel declared a formal ceasefire. U.S. President Trump announced both nations have reached full agreement to implement the ceasefire.

2. BIS: Stablecoins Unlikely to Be Core of Future Monetary System

On June 24, per CoinDesk, Texas Governor Greg Abbott signed Senate Bill 21, making Texas the first U.S. state to allocate public funds to establish a Bitcoin reserve. The state will earmark $10 million—becoming the first state to fund (not just authorize) a cryptocurrency reserve. Lee Bratcher, Chairman of the Texas Blockchain Council, said this investment represents just 0.0004% of the state budget but signals Texas's recognition of digital finance's future. Accompanying HB 4488 prohibits reserve funds from entering the regular state budget.

3.Ohio Lawmaker Proposes State-Level Bitcoin Reserve

Following the passage of HB116 to reduce crypto tax burdens, Ohio Representative Steve Demetriou stated that the next step is to establish a state-level Bitcoin reserve. The proposed bill HB18 would allow the state treasurer to allocate up to 10% of selected public funds into “high-market-cap” cryptocurrencies.

4.Arizona Passes Bitcoin Reserve Bill HB2324

The state of Arizona passed Bitcoin reserve bill HB2324, creating a reserve fund for assets seized through criminal forfeiture. If signed by Governor Hobbs, it will become the second reserve-related bill enacted in the state.

Traditional Asset Correlation

All three major U.S. indices continued to rise: S&P 500 +1.11%, Nasdaq +1.43%, Dow Jones +1.19%.
Spot gold plunged 1.67% in early trading, briefly falling below $3,300 before recovering to close at $3,333.80/oz.
WTI crude (USOIL) fell 3.35% before rebounding to close at $65.25/barrel.

On June 25, Bitcoin consolidated above the $105,000 support level and is now trading at $106,228, up approximately 0.8% on the day. On the 4-hour chart, the price has firmly held above the short-term moving average. The MACD histogram continues to expand, and the RSI remains around 64, indicating strong market momentum. In the short term, BTC is likely to test the $106,800 resistance level.

Overall, technical indicators suggest a bullish structure. If trading volume further increases, the rebound trend may continue. We recommend watching whether the $105,000 support level remains effective and observing any potential breakout around the $107,000 mark.

BTCC FAQs

Is BTCC safe?

Based on its track record since 2011, BTCC has established itself as a secure cryptocurrency exchange. There have been no reports of fraudulent activity involving user accounts or the platform's infrastructure. By enforcing mandatory know-your-customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) procedures, the cryptocurrency trading platform gives consumers greater security. For operations like withdrawals, it also provides extra security features like two-factor authentication (2FA).

Is KYC Necessary for BTCC?

Indeed. Before using BTCC goods, users must finish the Know Your Customer (KYC) process. A facial recognition scan and legitimate identification documents must be submitted for this process. Usually, it is finished in a few minutes. This procedure has the benefit of strengthening the security of the exchange and satisfying legal requirements.

Because their accounts will have a lower daily withdrawal limit, those who do not finish their KYC are unable to make deposits. It should be noted that those who present a legitimate ID without a facial recognition scan will likewise have restricted withdrawal options.

Is There a Mobile App for BTCC?

Indeed. For users of iOS and Android, BTCC has a mobile app. The exchange's website offers the mobile app for download. Since both the web version and the mobile app have the same features and capabilities, they are comparable.

Will I Have to Pay BTCC Trading Fees?

Indeed. BTCC levies a fee for trade, just like a lot of other centralised exchanges. Each user's VIP level, which is unlocked according to their available money, determines the different costs. The BTCC website provides information on the charge rates.

Can I Access BTCC From the U.S?

You can, indeed. According to its website, BTCC has obtained a crypto license from the US Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN), which enables the cryptocurrency exchange to provide its services to investors who are headquartered in the US.

According to BTCC's User Agreement document, its goods are not allowed to be used in nations and organisations that have been sanctioned by the United States or other nations where it has a licence.
