BTCC Crypto Daily (7.15) | US Crypto Regulatory Votes Loom, Hassett Emerges as Fed Chair Frontrunner

1.Overview

- Trump calls for "secondary sanctions" on Russia, reiterates Fed rates should fall below 1% while pushing for broader tariffs and military aid.
- US House of Representatives to vote on two pivotal crypto-related bills this week.
- AB predicts Bitcoin may reach $200,000 by year-end or early 2026.

2.Macro & Policy Outlook

Key Events Today

- US June Core CPI YoY to be released (previous: 2.8%)
- OPEC to publish monthly oil market report
- Eurozone May industrial output YoY (previous: 0.8%)

Global Macro Developments

1. Brazil Forms Special Committee to Counter US Tariff Threats

Brazil has set up a "Negotiation & Trade Response Committee" to assess and counter the potential impact of Trump's proposed 50% tariffs on Brazilian goods. Vice President and Industry Minister Geraldo Alckmin announced that meetings with industrial, agricultural sectors and exporters will begin July 15. He emphasized that retaliatory action would follow if the US proceeds with tariff implementation.

2. Hassett Leads as Frontrunner for Fed Chair Nomination

Kevin Hassett, head of the White House National Economic Council and longtime Trump economic advisor, is emerging as the top contender for Fed Chair. Hassett played a pivotal role in shaping Trump's economic agenda in his first term and remains a close confidant. After leaving government, he joined a private equity firm founded by Jared Kushner and advised Trump's 2024 campaign.

3. Trump Urges Fed Rate Cut, Announces Secondary Sanctions on Russia

Commerce Secretary clarified that Trump's "secondary measures" on Russia refer to tougher sanctions, not tariffs. Trump also called for the Fed to cut interest rates below 1% and expressed willingness to negotiate tariff policy. Simultaneously, he unveiled plans to provide NATO with billions in military equipment for Ukraine.

4. Kazakhstan Considers Allocating Sovereign Reserves into Crypto

Kazakhstan's central bank governor stated they are exploring partial allocation of national reserves into crypto assets and related funds, inspired by sovereign wealth fund strategies in Norway, the US, and the Middle East. Plans include launching a national crypto reserve vault and potentially accepting mined crypto via taxation.

5. US Regulators Reaffirm Crypto Custody Compliance for Banks

The Fed, FDIC, and OCC issued a joint statement reinforcing that banks offering crypto custody must adhere to existing regulations and enhance risk management. This includes key management, cybersecurity, AML compliance, and periodic audits.

6. US House to Vote on Two Key Crypto Bills This Week

The House will vote Wednesday on the CLARITY Act (Digital Asset Market Structure Bill) and Thursday on the GENIUS Act (Stablecoin Oversight & Innovation Framework). This week's "Crypto Week" signals growing Congressional support for crypto regulation.

3. Bitcoin Liquidation Map

On July 15, according to Coinglass data, based on the current price of $117,032, if Bitcoin falls below $115,000, the total long liquidation pressure across major centralized exchanges (CEXs) could reach $1.236 billion. Conversely, if Bitcoin breaks above $120,000, the total short liquidation pressure may rise to $1.577 billion. Investors are advised to manage leverage prudently to avoid triggering large-scale liquidations amid market fluctuations.

4. Bitcoin Long/Short Ratio

As of 14:00 HKT, the BTC long/short ratio stands at 0.6795 (long: 40.46%, short: 59.54%).

5. On-Chain Monitoring

- Wintermute: In H1 2025, institutions focused on BTC and ETH (67% allocation); retail preferred high-risk altcoins, holding only 37% in majors.
- AB: Crypto bull cycle may extend through 2026; BTC could reach $200K by end-2025 or early 2026.
- Greeks.live: Market sentiment remains bullish; $130K seen as next key resistance level.

6.BTCC Exclusive Market Analysis

On July 15, Bitcoin sharply retraced after its breakout, falling to a 4H low of $117,026 and breaking below the MA5 and Bollinger mid-band support. The MACD death cross has been confirmed, with expanding red bars indicating growing bearish momentum. Consecutive bearish candles below all major moving averages mark a disruption to the bullish trend.

This pullback reflects a "high-volume top—swift drop" structure, with clear gaps in the support zone. Key support now lies near $115,500. If BTC fails to reclaim the MA20 and mid-band, further downside tests are likely. Short-term traders should closely monitor MA10 and MACD histogram changes for exit signals.

On the macro front, Trump's renewed call for sub-1% interest rates and secondary sanctions on Russia have stirred global risk aversion. Brazil's retaliatory planning signals rising geopolitical tension. These dynamics may continue to pressure risk assets and influence short-term sentiment. Flexibility in positioning remains critical.

Risk Warning: The content above is for informational purposes only and should not be construed as investment advice. Investors should conduct their own due diligence and be aware of the high risks associated with cryptocurrency trading.

How to Trade Crypto on BTCC?

This brief instruction will assist you in registering for and trading on the BTCC exchange.

Step 1: Register an account

The first step is to hit the "Sign Up" button on the BTCC website or app. Your email address and a strong password are all you need. After completing that, look for a verification email in your inbox. To activate your account, click the link in the email.

BTCC FAQs

Is BTCC safe?

Based on its track record since 2011, BTCC has established itself as a secure cryptocurrency exchange. There have been no reports of fraudulent activity involving user accounts or the platform's infrastructure. By enforcing mandatory know-your-customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) procedures, the cryptocurrency trading platform gives consumers greater security. For operations like withdrawals, it also provides extra security features like two-factor authentication (2FA).

Is KYC Necessary for BTCC?

Indeed. Before using BTCC goods, users must finish the Know Your Customer (KYC) process. A facial recognition scan and legitimate identification documents must be submitted for this process. Usually, it is finished in a few minutes. This procedure has the benefit of strengthening the security of the exchange and satisfying legal requirements.

Because their accounts will have a lower daily withdrawal limit, those who do not finish their KYC are unable to make deposits. It should be noted that those who present a legitimate ID without a facial recognition scan will likewise have restricted withdrawal options.

Is There a Mobile App for BTCC?

Indeed. For users of iOS and Android, BTCC has a mobile app. The exchange's website offers the mobile app for download. Since both the web version and the mobile app have the same features and capabilities, they are comparable.

Will I Have to Pay BTCC Trading Fees?

Indeed. BTCC levies a fee for trade, just like a lot of other centralised exchanges. Each user's VIP level, which is unlocked according to their available money, determines the different costs. The BTCC website provides information on the charge rates.

Can I Access BTCC From the U.S?

You can, indeed. According to its website, BTCC has obtained a crypto license from the US Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN), which enables the cryptocurrency exchange to provide its services to investors who are headquartered in the US.

According to BTCC's User Agreement document, its goods are not allowed to be used in nations and organisations that have been sanctioned by the United States or other nations where it has a licence.
