What is an IPO and Why It Matters for Bullish?

An Initial Public Offering (IPO) allows a private company to offer shares to the public for the first time. This can generate substantial capital, enhance visibility, and provide a transparent valuation.

For Bullish, an IPO could:

- Signal long-term growth confidence.
- Offer public access to a rapidly growing crypto infrastructure platform.
- Compete directly with Coinbase, Robinhood, and Binance.

Is Bullish Going Public? [Bullish IPO Date 2025]

When is Bullish Going Public?

As of August 2025, Bullish has not yet launched its IPO, but speculation is heating up. Originally, Bullish planned to go public via a SPAC deal with Far Peak Acquisition Corp (FPAC) valued at $9 billion back in 2021. The deal was eventually called off in late 2022 due to regulatory delays and market conditions.

However, recent insider reports suggest Bullish is reviving its IPO plans for late 2025 or early 2026.

Why the Delay?

Several factors contributed to the delay:

- Regulatory hurdles with the SEC.
- Crypto market volatility in 2022 and 2023.
- Leadership transitions within Bullish and Block.one.

But with the crypto bull market of 2025, a resurgence in IPO interest, and the rising success of competitors, Bullish may finally take the leap.

Bullish Exchange IPO: Valuation and Expectations

Estimated Bullish IPO Valuation

When Bullish first announced its intent to go public via SPAC, the estimated valuation was $9 billion. Fast forward to 2025, and with increased trading volume, institutional partnerships, and a stablecoin ecosystem, analysts suggest a valuation between $12-$15 billion could be likely.

What Could the Stock Price Be?

Assuming a float of 100-150 million shares:

- IPO price estimate: $60-$100 per share
- Post-IPO price forecast (2026): $120+
- Bullish IPO stock price prediction (2030): Could exceed $300 if crypto adoption trends continue

These estimates assume sustained crypto growth and Bullish maintaining or expanding its market share.

Pros of a SPAC IPO:

- Faster public access
- Lower regulatory scrutiny

- Greater control over valuation

However, SEC reforms on SPACs may influence Bullish to pursue a traditional IPO listing on Nasdaq or NYSE instead.

BTCC FAQs

Is BTCC safe?

Based on its track record since 2011, BTCC has established itself as a secure cryptocurrency exchange. There have been no reports of fraudulent activity involving user accounts or the platform’s infrastructure. By enforcing mandatory know-your-customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) procedures, the cryptocurrency trading platform gives consumers greater security. For operations like withdrawals, it also provides extra security features like two-factor authentication (2FA).

Is KYC Necessary for BTCC?

Indeed. Before using BTCC goods, users must finish the Know Your Customer (KYC) process. A facial recognition scan and legitimate identification documents must be submitted for this process. Usually, it is finished in a few minutes. This procedure has the benefit of strengthening the security of the exchange and satisfying legal requirements.

Because their accounts will have a lower daily withdrawal limit, those who do not finish their KYC are unable to make deposits. It should be noted that those who present a legitimate ID without a facial recognition scan will likewise have restricted withdrawal options.

Is There a Mobile App for BTCC?

Indeed. For users of iOS and Android, BTCC has a mobile app. The exchange’s website offers the mobile app for download. Since both the web version and the mobile app have the same features and capabilities, they are comparable.

Will I Have to Pay BTCC Trading Fees?

Indeed. BTCC levies a fee for trade, just like a lot of other centralised exchanges. Each user's VIP level, which is unlocked according to their available money, determines the different costs. The BTCC website provides information on the charge rates.

Can I Access BTCC From the U.S?

You can, indeed. According to its website, BTCC has obtained a crypto license from the US Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN), which enables the cryptocurrency exchange to provide its services to investors who are headquartered in the US.

According to BTCC's User Agreement document, its goods are not allowed to be used in nations and organisations that have been sanctioned by the United States or other nations where it has a licence.
