Official TRUMP ($TRUMP) Price Prediction: Next 100X Trump-Themed Meme Coin?

On January 17, US President-elect Donald Trump launched his own cryptocurrency Official TRUMP ($TRUMP) just ahead of his inauguration on January 20, 2025. This launch sparks a feverish buying that apparently sent its market capitalization skyrocketing to several billion dollars. Donald Trump's official meme coin, $TRUMP, made a strong debut with a significant bullish rally. However, the momentum didn't last—following its all-time high, the token has since plummeted by over 80%.

Notably, President Donald Trump's meme coin surged more than 60% on April 23 after a post announcing "the most EXCLUSIVE INVITATION in the world" promised the top 220 buyers of $TRUMP a private gala dinner with the president on May 22. Then, what is Official TRUMP ($TRUMP)? Is it a good investment? Next, we will explore Official TRUMP ($TRUMP) price prediction from 2025 to 2050, analyzing whether it is a potential crypto project amid current uncertain market condition.

Latest News & Updates on Official Trump

Donald Trump's official meme coin, $TRUMP, launched with strong momentum, experiencing a bullish rally early on. However, the enthusiasm was short-lived—the token has since plummeted nearly 80% from its all-time high, triggering fears of a deeper collapse among investors. Even with attempts by the former U.S. President to influence market sentiment, the token's downward trend persisted.

In a surprising twist, $TRUMP surged over 60% on April 23 following a promotional post touting "the most EXCLUSIVE INVITATION in the world." The post promised the top 220 $TRUMP buyers a private gala dinner with President Trump, scheduled for May 22. The offer generated buzz across social media and reignited short-term trading interest in the token.

This dinner announcement is the latest in a string of crypto-related ventures tied to Trump and his family, which have reportedly earned them hundreds of millions of dollars in fees. Launched shortly before Trump's January 20 inauguration, the $TRUMP token peaked at $74.59 before crashing to a low of $7.14 by April 7.

According to crypto analytics firm Chainalysis, entities linked to Trump had generated at least $350 million in fees from the coin by March 12. The market was bracing for another drop last week as 40 million new tokens were set to unlock, but the project's official X account announced that the unlock would be delayed by an additional 90 days.

Notably, the terms of the dinner offer also state that "President Trump may not be able to attend." In such a case, eligible winners would instead receive a limited-edition TRUMP NFT as a substitute.

Developed by CIC Digital LLC, an affiliate of the Trump Organization, Official Trump ($TRUMP) has attracted significant attention, with its market capitalization reaching $13.82 billion, positioning it as the 15th largest cryptocurrency and second largest meme coin by market value. According to Donald Trump, this digital asset is celebrating “WINNING” the presidential election and his upcoming inauguration.

Notably, this token’s website includes a disclaimer, stating $TRUMP is “not intended to be, or the subject of” an investment opportunity nor a security of any type, and is “not political and has nothing to do with” any political campaign, political office or government agency.

Since its launch, Official Trump ($TRUMP) has rapidly gained market traction, soaring by 12000%. However, the downfall hit harder, as the token lost 80% of its price from the ATH.

$TRUMP Tokenomics

According to the coin's website, The meme coin's developers have limited the supply of $TRUMP to 200 million coins at launch before expanding the overall supply to 1 billion over the next three years.

The remaining 80% of tokens that have yet to be publicly released are owned by the Trump Organization affiliate CIC Digital LLC and Fight Fight Fight LLC, a company established in Delaware on Jan. 7, according to state filings, and both companies will receive an undisclosed amount of revenue derived from trading activity.

Official TRUMP ($TRUMP) Price Analysis

Official Trump (TRUMP), one of the most popular meme coins, has remained in a persistent downtrend, losing nearly 28% of its value over the past month. The sentiment around the Donald Trump-themed token remained largely bearish—until today. Following the unlocking of $307 million worth of tokens, representing nearly 20% of the total supply, TRUMP saw a surprising 10% price rebound.

After touching a weekly low of $7.50, the token surged to an intraday high of $ 16.1760, and is currently trading at $ 10.1350 . The rally was accompanied by a significant spike in activity, with a 24-hour trading volume of $ 437.6M and a market capitalization of $ 2.0B.

Typically, large token unlocks are seen as bearish catalysts due to the increased supply and dilution risks. However, TRUMP's structured unlock schedule helped mitigate those concerns. Of the $307 million in unlocked tokens, only 40 million tokens are entering circulation immediately, while the remaining $4 million worth will be unlocked daily, reducing the potential shock to the market.

Investor sentiment has also turned slightly more optimistic, buoyed by Trump's perceived influence over potential Fed rate cuts, easing trade war tensions, and other macro-political factors.

Despite this short-term recovery, analysts remain cautious. Many believe that the uptrend may be temporary, as bearish pressure continues to dominate the broader market outlook for TRUMP.
