What is Crypto Sign-Up Bonus?

A crypto sign-up bonus is an incentive offered to new users as a reward for registering for an account on a cryptocurrency exchange. This bonus typically takes the form of free cryptocurrency, such as Bitcoin or USDT, and is granted upon the completion of certain tasks.

The most common tasks include creating an account, verifying one's identity, or making a deposit. These bonuses serve as a strategy for exchanges to attract new users and motivate them to commence trading activities.
