TrumpCoin (DJT) Price History

The native token of TrumpCoin, DJT, has traversed a path as contentious as the political figure upon which it is modeled. Amidst a whirlwind of speculation, DJT debuted with a surge in its price during its nascent days. Initially, the token launched amidst lofty expectations and swiftly ascended to approximately $0.015. This initial spike was likely propelled by whispers about its genesis and rumored ties to Trump's family, attracting both politically inclined investors and speculative traders.

However, DJT's ascent was fleeting. Within mere weeks, the token's price plummeted below $0.005 as the initial fervor waned, prompting investors who had jumped on the bandwagon early to start cashing out.

The token bottomed out around $0.002 in late August, 2024, where it lingered with minimal movement for an extended period. This stagnant phase persisted for months, with the price barely fluctuating and hovering near its lows, making DJT resemble another fading PolitiFi project.

Recently, however, DJT has undergone a price drop. On January 17, 2025, president-elect Donald Trump shared the launch of Solana Meme Coin TRUMP ahead of his inauguration, which fueled its price rally. However, other Trump-themed meme coin like DJT slumped dramatically.

As of writing the article, TrumpCoin (DJT) is traded at $ 0.00015199, witnessing a hefty 24-hour trading volume of $ 14.5K. TrumpCoin (DJT) saw a 24-hour change of 1.97%, with minor fluctuations of 0.81% in the past hour.
