How does NOTAI Work?

NOTAI is designed to make the world of Web3 and AI accessible to a wide audience, emphasizing user-friendliness, engagement, and the integration of advanced technologies. At the core of NOTAI lies its innovative SuperApp, built on Telegram and powered by the TON blockchain. This platform seamlessly integrates AI-driven tools and services into a single, intuitive interface.

The onboarding process with NOTAI has been crafted to ensure maximum smoothness for users. In contrast to traditional Web3 platforms that often necessitate complex wallet setups and an in-depth understanding of blockchain technology, NOTAI simplifies this experience significantly. The Telegram mini-app automatically generates a wallet for users by employing account abstraction techniques that conceal the intricacies associated with blockchain technology.

Once onboarded, users are welcomed into a gamified environment that renders learning about cryptocurrencies and AI not only accessible but also enjoyable. Through interactive quests and tasks, users progressively acquire essential knowledge and skills needed to navigate the cryptocurrency landscape effectively.

In addition to educational offerings, NOTAI provides sophisticated AI-driven portfolio management tools designed to optimize investment strategies by integrating with various DeFi protocols. The AI continuously monitors market conditions and risk factors while automatically adjusting investment strategies to ensure optimal performance.
