What is TruthGPT? Is it Worth Investing? — Everything you Need to Know

Elon Musk, CEO of Twitter (NYSE: TWTR), joked, “what we need is TruthGPT” in response to ChatGPT, a text-based artificial intelligence (AI) platform that allegedly refuses to answer certain controversial questions. Now, an eponymous project has emerged using the technology underpinning the cryptocurrency industry to address this problem.

Nevertheless, on February 17, Musk posted to Twitter to express his displeasure with the fact that ChatGPT evidently restricts certain topics it deems problematic, hinting that it plays into certain propaganda and seemingly suggesting the need for an alternative AI that wouldn't be controlled in this way.

What we need is TruthGPT

— Elon Musk (@elonmusk) February 17, 2023

Coincidentally, a Twitter account under the handle @TruthGPT was created on the same day, with the first tweet quoting the relevant statement by the Tesla (NASDAQ: TSLA) CEO and including links to the account's contract address, Telegram group, and a listing for the TruthGPT (TRUTH) token on the cryptocurrency exchange platform DEXtools.

What is TruthGPT ?

The TruthGPT token ($TRUTH) was developed by its user base and operates on the Binance Smart Chain. The token was conceptualized in a tweet by Elon Musk and developed into a serious currency in short order.

The founding community of TruthGPT has set its sights on one particular target: Tesla genius Elon Musk. With the ultimate goal of exposing $TRUTH, become the best AI Chabot possible.

How does TruthGPT Work?

Meanwhile, the team claimed on its Telegram channel that its mission was “to construct the vision that Elon Musk has; an AI Chat Bot that is trained to communicate the honest truth of whatever it may be asked. The groundwork has been laid, and soon TRUTH will be a powerful meme coin and a beacon of honesty and truth for everyone in the world to use.

Multiple subsequent tweets from the platform also urged Musk to help with the widespread adoption of TruthGPT, praising it as “the truth on steroids” for its role in free speech and AI and claiming that it would “analyze the sentiment of the crypto market” through social media posts and news articles and use AI algorithms to prevent fraud in crypto trading.

Additionally, the TruthGPT group highlighted that their platform “is not vulnerable to censorship, manipulation, or any type of bias,” citing an example of their bot providing a critical response to a question concerning ChatGPT.

It’s no secret that ChatGPT and OpenAI are highly censored for political reasons. TruthGPT is the first genuine alternative AI that provides objective, non-curved information.

There are currently 682 TRUTH token holders on the Ethereum (ETH) blockchain, and the total supply of the asset is 5 trillion TRUTH, according to data retrieved from the block explorer and analytics platform Etherscan, which was released on February 19. The ‘Truth Bot’ itself was successfully launched on Telegram on February 19.

TruthGPT Launches

Elon Musk has been vocal about his displeasure with the way ChatGPT has gone viral. On the other hand, Musk co-founded OpenAI, the research firm that created the software. As a result of the transition from a non-profit to a for-profit business model, I decided to leave the company.

The Elon Musk-conceived TruthGPT is now live as a replacement for ChatGPT. An alternative to the OpenAI system appears to have materialized in the form of a Twitter account and a Telegram Channel. To add insult to injury, the Twitter account addresses the CEO of the platform, suggesting that Elon Musk has nothing to do with the project.

According to Finbold, the program's purpose is "to develop the vision that Elon Musk has; an AI ChatBot that is intended to spread the honest truth of whatever it may be asked. The groundwork has been laid, and soon TRUTH will be a powerful meme coin and a beacon of honesty and truth for everyone in the world to use.

Elon Musk has long argued that social media and similar platforms should better protect users' right to free speech. This ChatGPT replacement has finally answered the call. As an aside, they have also released a token called TRUTH on the Ethereum network, which, according to Finbold, has 682 holders already.
