The coin is among the top gainers of the year and is attracting heavy bullish sentiments in the indices. Now that Hex price is rallying, investors are keen to know when could it reach the $1 milestone.

When Will Hex Crypto Price Reach $1 Mark?

Hex is known to have dramatic price spikes quite often that take investors by surprise. The cryptocurrency has doubled in price on many occasions making it to be a lucrative and promising investment. It also doubled in price 13 consecutive times between 2020 and 2021. So when could it reach the $1 milestone? Let's find out!

The token is currently trading at $0.052 after adding an extra 'zero' in the indices during the 2022 bear markets. It is unable to delete a 'zero' as the markets remain under pressure due to weak global macroeconomic factors.

However, price prediction and analytical firm Gov Capital has painted a rosy picture for Hex. Gov Capital remains to be bullish on its prospects and predicted that Hex could reach $1 in September 2027. Therefore, it could reach $1 nearly four and a half years from today and an upside of approximately 1,925%.

According to Gov Capital, Hex's minimum price could remain above the $1 mark during the Q4 of 2027. At the time of writing, Hex was trading at $0.052, down 1.5% in the past 24 hours. It is also down 90.53% from its all time high of $0.55 recorded in September 2021.
